

BROWNWOOD AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON
City Council
January 18, 2019

The City Council of the City of Brownwood, Texas, was invited to attend the Brownwood Area Chamber of Commerce luncheon to hear a presentation by Mayor Stephen Haynes – Annual State of the City Report at the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church Coggin Connection Center, 1715 Coggin Avenue, Brownwood, Texas, where a quorum of the City Council was present. The Council did not deliberate or take any action. Those in attendance were: Mayor Stephen Haynes; Councilman Ward 1, HD Jones; Councilman Ward 2, Ed McMillian; Councilman Ward 3, Larry Mathis; and Councilman Ward 4, Draco Miller; and various City of Brownwood Department Heads and staff.

The Mayor invited guests to speak about various topics of the City. City Manager, Emily Crawford, and Director of the Brownwood Municipal Development District, Ray Tipton, spoke about crime, economics, real estate, and construction. BISD Superintendent, Dr. Joe Young, and BISD School Board President, Dr. Michael Cloy, gave an overview of some recently added programs and the difference it will make for the students and the community. 3M Plant Manager, Russ Bryan, spoke about two expansions that will bring in seventeen new technical personnel. Weakley-Watson owner, Weston Jacobs, spoke about the challenges of owning a small business with today's growing online retail. Mayor Haynes thanked everyone for attending.
